

My mummy is tall, very tall,
Much taller than other mums.
When she comes to pick me up from school,
other mums move out of the way to let her pass.

My mummy is strong, very strong,
Much stronger than the other mums.
No mummy can beat her at arm-wrestling.
Nor any daddy either!

My mummy is beautiful, very beautiful,
Much more beautiful than the other mums.
If there were a beauty contest for mums,
my mummy would win first prize.

My mummy is intelligent,
very intelligent,
much more intelligent
than the other mums.
She always works out who the baddie is before the end of the film.
And she can do sums in her head!

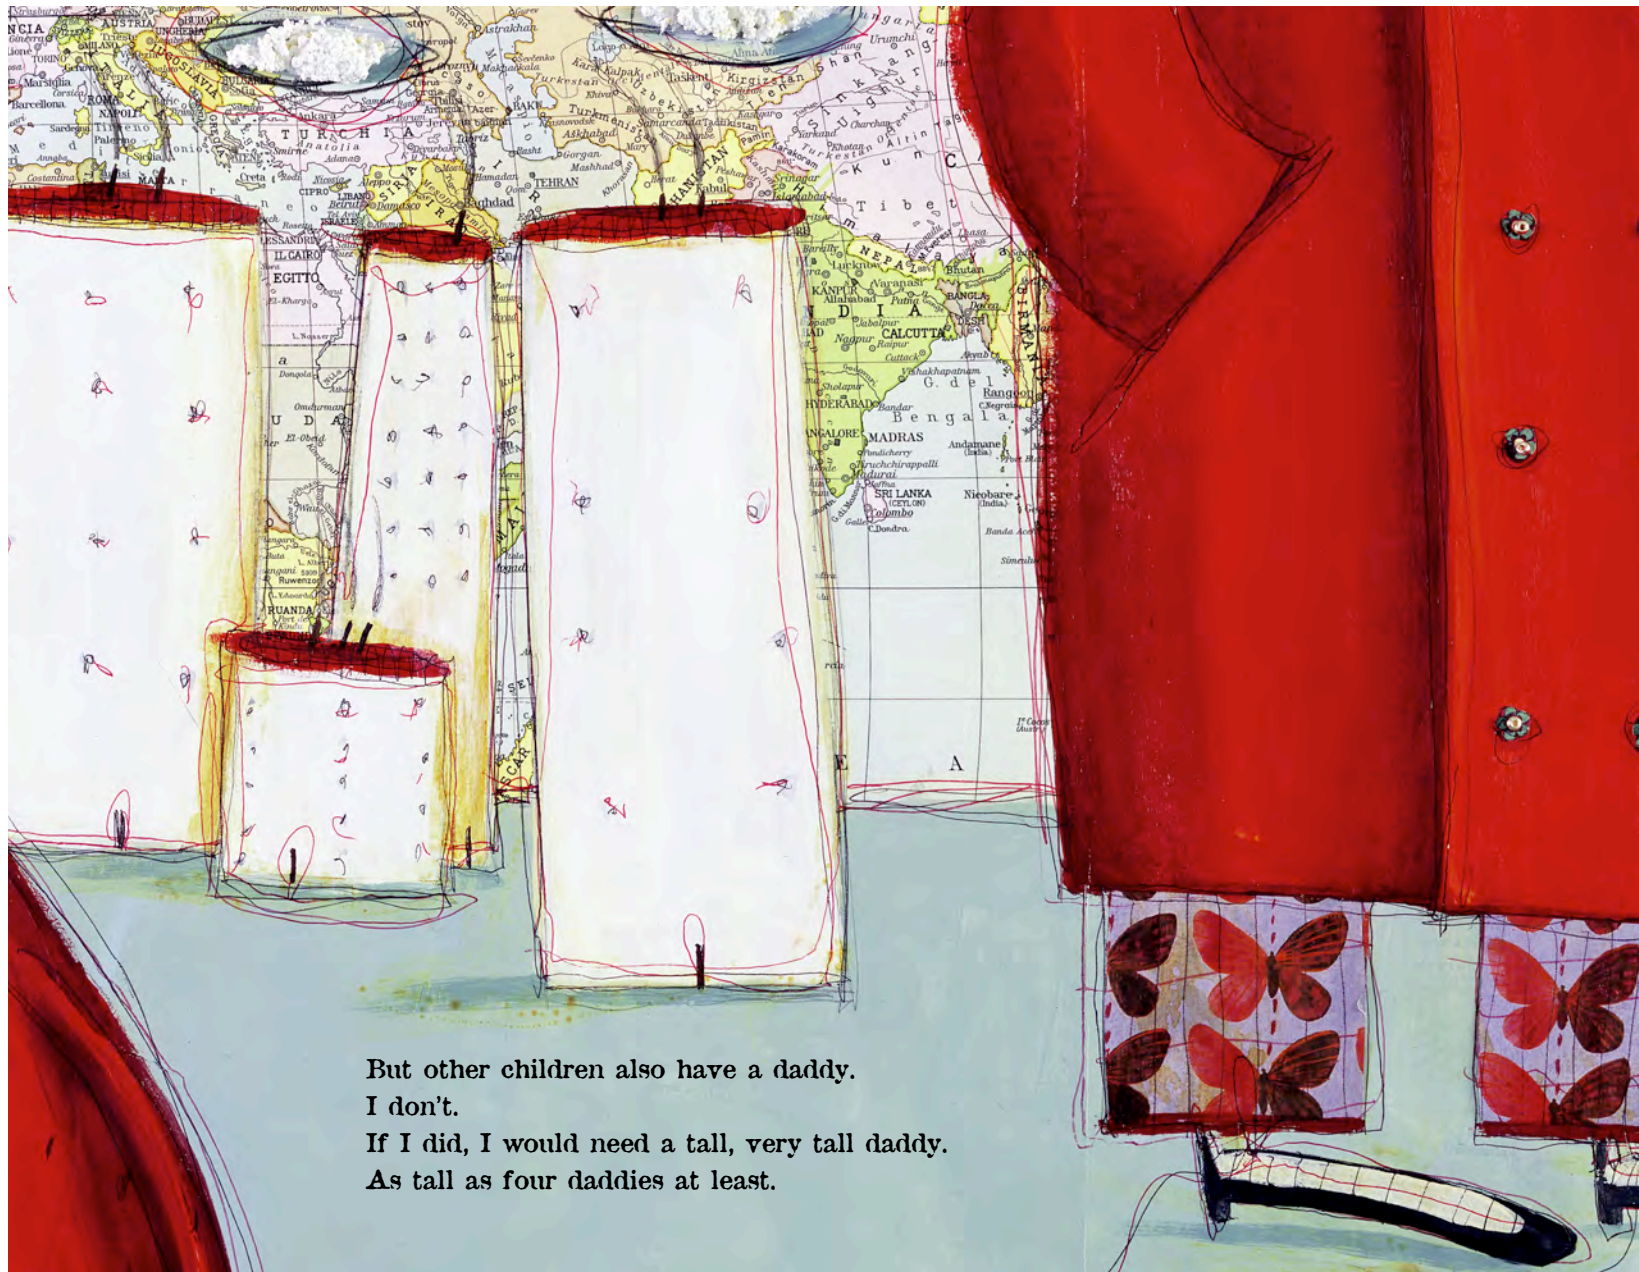

My mummy is athletic, very athletic,
Much more athletic than the other mums.
She can play bowls ... table football ...
And she can roller-skate.

But other children also have a daddy.
I don't.
If I did, I would need a tall, very tall daddy.
As tall as four daddies at least.
