

Worksheet

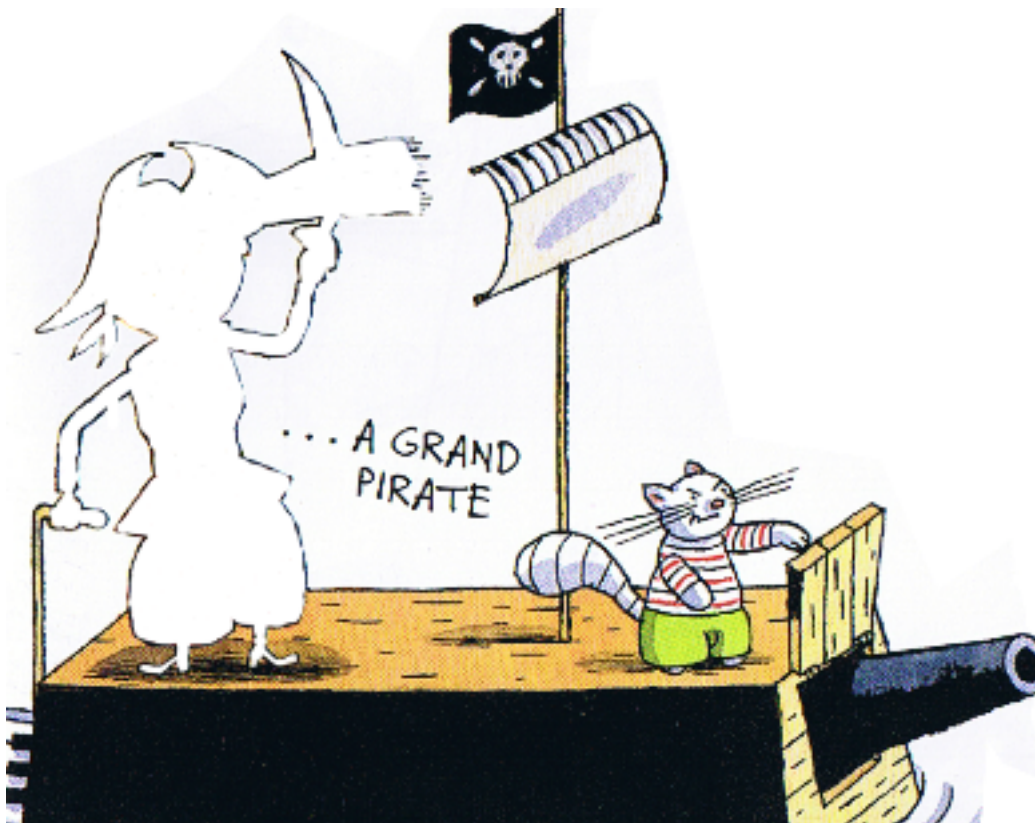

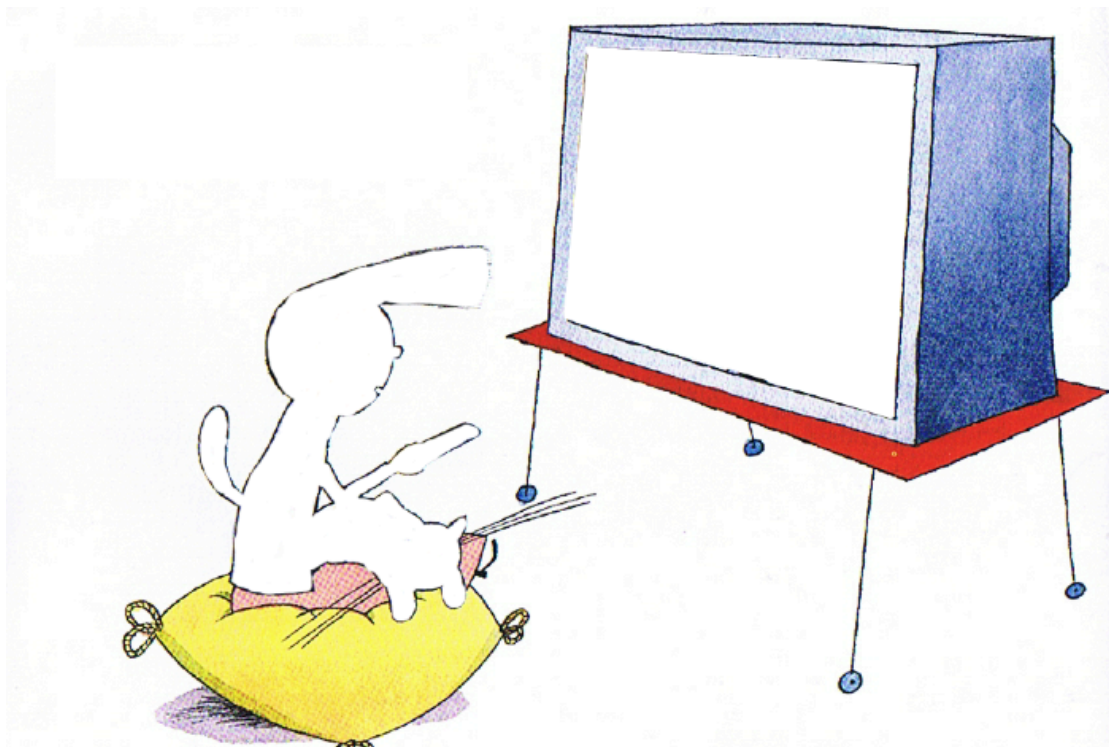

Piano Piano by Davide Cali & Eric Heliot

Prepared by Alison Lough, Teacher, Chelsea Heights Primary School, Victoria (email lough.alison.n@edumail.vic.gov.au). To be used in conjunction with teachers' notes available for download at www.wilkinsfarago.com.au.

Section 1 - Match the comments to the character who said them

'Why? What's wrong with being at home?'	Mum
'AARRH! I'm sick of this!'	Grandfather
'Aren't you tired? Wouldn't you like to stop for a snack?'	Marcolino
'Aren't you tired of visiting the same museum over and over again?'	Mum
'No, it's not lost'	Grandfather
'So why aren't you a great pianist?'	Grandfather
'Who says you have to be a great pianist?'	Marcolino
'The world is full of different instruments. Why don't you choose the one you'd like to play?'	Mum
'What are you doing here? Get back to the piano now!'	Grandfather
'Keep practising'	Marcolino
'I don't want to be a great pianist'	Grandfather
'What's that?'	Grandfather
'... Don't you remember my dear?'	Marcolino

Section 2 - Copy the missing parts of these pictures from the book

Section 3 - Re-write the following sentences, using synonyms to replace the underlined words.

e.g. Why are you making such a grumpy face in the photo?
Why are you pulling such an angry face in the photo?

1. His mum didn't like playing the piano.
2. Grandfather looks happy when he comes out of the kitchen.
3. Why don't you choose the one you'd like to play?
4. Aren't you tired? Wouldn't you like to stop for a snack?
5. In the box, there are photos of mum when she was young.

Section 4 - What was your favourite part or page in the book? Explain why: